Participants:

All licensed radio amateurs and SWLs are welcome.

SSB-Party and CW-Party are separate contests.

Exchange:

RS(T) and number of membership in DIG are exchanged. Non-members only report RS(T). A station may only be worked once per Band. Contest call is: CQ DIG!

Scoring:

Fone, CW and SWLs entries are scored separately. Each contact with a member of DIG counts 10 points. Each contact with non-members counts one point.

Multipliers:

The sum of DIG members worked, numbered consecutively. Each member is counted only once regardless of bands. A second multiplier is the number of countries (DXCC and WAE country list) worked on each band.

Final score:

The final score is computed by multiplying the sum of contacts by the sum of worked different DIG members and countries worked.

Participation of SWL:

Each correct contact between two DIG members counts 10 points but with the same DIG member may be logged only in 10 contacts. Each contact between DIG member and non DIG member counts one point. Scoring and sum see above.

Cups, Trophies, Awards:

The winner will get an engraved cup. Second place to place 10 will be awarded with certificates. The best YL of each contest part will get a special DIG Plaque. When we get more than ten (10) logs from a country, a special DIG Plaque will be given to each country winner. All other competitors will get a commemorative QSL with statement of achieved result.

Log sheets:

You may make your own log sheets with these columns:

UTC•Call sent•received•band•QSO points•DXCC Land•DIG member

Original log sheets are available from DIG contest manager or DIG secretary with SAL and 1 IRC.

Electronical Logs in Cabrillo format are welcome.

Results:

The final score of DIG-QSO-Party will be announced in the DIG-Nets and on the DIG website as soon as possible. Logs without scoring can be regarded only as check-logs.

With the submission of the Log the participant agrees, that he will be listed with his call sign in the list of final results.

Deadline for log entries:

Deadline for logs of a year's DIG-Parties is May 31st. All logs must be sent to the DIG contest Manager:
